gamedpad keybord and mouse not working i cant start the game from main menu. This GMYC has very responsive controls and this is huge deal for any platformer. Levels are fast and fun, so yeah, I recommend it.. freakin phenominal the games horde mode is crazy as all hell the story modes puzzles, puzzle me lol, see what i did there lol ummm get the game its definitly worth it i cant wait for updates like more games and everything like that , gamne of the year yall.. Imagine stanley parable, but 20 minutes long and looks like it's from 1995.

Pros: I love the graphics, has multiple endings (about 5 endings), what you do affects your rank in the end (slacking off by taking LSD, going to the bathroom without washing your hands, and snooping around, lowers your rank).

Cons: No randomly generated tasks so when you beat the game you're just playing it again to get a different ending and achievements, the game is a little too short but the price justifies it.

Overall, I recommend it. Very good game indeed 8\/10. We need Buell XB12s and EBR bikes, please!. Nice little Puzzle-Game :) Puzzles are challenging, but not too hard.
Really liked the variation - with music, logic or you have to weigh sth, etc.

Only con - the length - but if you get it for a budget price, it's definitely worth a try!. Like Azurael's Circle: Chapter 1, the unique gameplay keeps you seeking more answers. I like how areas illuminate only after you've entered them, which makes the scare potential great. Story line was better in the first, but I look forward to seeing how it is all connected. Fantastic twist at the end! Keep looking for those alternative endings.... This is one of the best point and click adventure games of all time. It is set in a sort of medieval fantasy setting that is precariously balanced between darkly goofy and quite serious.

The preceding game The Dark Eye: the Chains of Satinav, while not as good, should be played first to get the background of some of the characters.

The first game had great art, and decent voiceovers, with some nonsensical puzzles, and some good ones, and a relatively generic story.

Memoria however has an amazing story. It focuses on new characters, while still developing the characters from the previous game. You learn a lot about the gods and magical nature of the series' universe. The ending blew my mind. It's like Primer meets Lord of the Rings.

I could go into greater detail about the story but there really isn't any point. If you are a fan of point and clicks, and that sort of old fantasy style, like King's Quest or something, then play this series, even if you have to push through the first one, it will be worth it. The puzzles are slightly above average. But the story is really the highlight. The art is great too. The voiceovers are fine, some lines had stale delivery, but you definitely become acustomed to the voices by the end of it. It's probably the best adventure game of the past decade.. Great new dilemas. Smart Meters are recommended ASAP!

SPACE HUNT is a nice wave based FPS.

The game looks good, plays well and is worth the price, IMO.

Fun and simple.. Have you ever wondered why two blue-eyed parents cannot have a brown-eyed child, but two brown-eyed parents CAN have blue-eyed children? After playing this game, you will totally understand dominant and recessive genes (quite a mouthful, isn't it?) I found this game very entertaining - just hard enough to be challenging, but not so hard that I would give up in frustration. My only complaints would be that you cannot save one game and then start another, and every time you start a game you have to go through the introduction again. I hope they will come out with a sequel.. Hi! Level 44 how?. Me and my wife decided that we don't want to have children anymore. So anybody who wants one can leave us their phone number and address and we will bring you one.. Lagging like hell, takes up the 30 minutes to start after white screen bug. The dev sais he cant fix it so refund it (thx a lot).

Totally not recommended!
